MAINSHEET

Hey Sailors,

I have just come in from our annual treasure hunt. What a blast! There were 18 boats scattered all over Lake Juliette looking for water jars hidden in the most unlikely spots. At one point, we were at the far end of the lake and looking back toward the dam it seemed as if the entire lake was covered with sailboats. This was topped off by a delicious chicken barbeque dinner prepared by chef Marcus. This may be something we would like to try again. Sunday afternoon Alfredo set some kind of a club record by turning turtle twice - in different boats! The wind was great! Thank all of you for coming and making this a really fun time.

We are going on a week sailing vacation to the Florida panhandle this coming Saturday (August 11). Only one problem – still no boat. The Catalina dealer in Atlanta has really jerked us around with late order dates, incorrect delivery times, and just when all the major parts arrived the discovery that some obscure part necessary to redo the rigging somehow got ‘lost’ by UPS. I am biting my tongue not to offend them to the point that they never get around to fixing it. They have now ‘promised’ me that it will be ready on the 11th. This, of course, means that I have to spend at least a half day of vacation fighting Atlanta traffic. Slow burn....

Many of you may not be aware of the informal dingy races every Thursday at 6:30 PM on Lake T. in Macon. When you go in the gate at the Park just tell them you are going to Special Olympics and they will let you pass without a fee. This is a chance to hone your skills and assist the Special Olympics.

This months meeting will be held at Logan’s Steak House off Arkwright Road exit in Macon on August 21st. This will be our ‘permanent’ meeting place until they either kick us out or we decide to go somewhere else. Come and bring a friend.

Think wind!

EDITOR'S CORNER

There are a couple of items that I wanted to share with you, first the photos on the cover are just an example of what we can expect during the Labor Day cruise. 20 plus boats from all over the southeast, coming together in Florida for about 60 miles of cruising on the intercoastal. The planned destination is Navarre, we will rendezvous at Juana’s Pagoda for a social gathering Saturday afternoon. If you would like more info be sure to attend the next meeting, or contact Steve Dillard.

Also we just started our Thursday evening informal dinghy races. On the water by 6:30 at Lake Tobasoffkee (Special Olympics site). The first night we had six boats and ran 3 races in good wind. Laurie sailed and raced solo for the first time in her boat. It was a great fun for everyone, even the spectators. Thanks to Phil for opening his facilities and his group of Special Olympians. They are really neat people and will bless the socks off you.

Please send me your articles and stories, things you are doing to your boats, update, changes, or questions you might have. We have a broad range of knowledge available to draw from, and share with. See you at the meeting, and on the Lake!

Michael and Shala Glennon have moved again! Yep we have moved to sunny Tampa Florida. Actually we live in a town called Brandon Florida which is just east of Tampa Bay. From the ones who knew us when we lived in Warner Robins and sailed on Lake Juliette we owned a 21 foot precision. I had to sell the boat last year for our move but looking for a smaller version (18 footer would be nice) to enjoy in Tampa Bay.

If any of you all are in the area please look us up. I would welcome old and new faces that enjoy the same hobby we all love! If the drive is not to far I would even offer setting up a sailing trip down here in Tampa bay for the LJSC. We love getting the "Rudder" and reading about all of our friends!
